WHAT WE OFFER

We offer one of the largest arrays of rare stones hand-picked from all across the globe.

Introduced new age materials such as ceramic and Italian porcelain stoneware by Italy-based Ist Tile, Fiandre and Fuoriformato.

He further added that one of the best things that the company offers to its customer is that the product is always long lasting, and there are many possibilities for innovations that can be done within the products with the help of the latest technologies.

Architect Pallavi Pashine of Salankar Pashine & Associates said a crisp, clean and natural look of the marble invokes a visual interest while keeping the

"With a variety of lighting options, today, you are just one Google search away from choosing the right light for your setting. What is interesting is that with just one right choice, you can add automated solutions to your home including the bathroom. Looking back at the last year and even now, when most of us are spending the majority of our day in the house, all thanks to the global pandemic, the normal has become mundane.

This is where smart homes/bathroom comes into play; when we install smart integration, everything gets upgraded including the bathroom. The key is to make technology user friendly and convenient," he said.

According to Pashine, creating a lighting scheme that evokes glamour and elegance to the bathroom interiors is the key. "Statement lighting or mirror lights further enhances the luxury aspect of the bathroom. Lighting in the corners or over the mirror leaves the room looking spacious and inviting while serving aesthetic purposes," he said.

WALLS & FLOORING

A superbly crafted bathroom floor and walls is also essential to create a luxury statement.

"In today's times, what the consumer expects is good processing that makes the product last longer, provides longevity, makes it finesse and a lot of variety. At A-Class, we aim to deliver all these to our clients by exporting the best from different countries. We incorporate cost-effectiveness and the aspirational needs using the vacuum technology and machinery from Italy, which ensures minimum wastage and better recovery," Rajesh Bhandari, Director, A-Class Marbles said.

interiors luxurious, minimal and ageless. "One can make an accent wall with marble tiles over the sink, by the shower or simply use it on the floor. Apart from marble, chrome, copper and steel are other popular choices. Metallic look aid in fabricating a visual impact and the change the mood from practical to indulgent," she added.

As Pashine concludes, people are becoming more comfortable with going bold in the bathrooms with various patterns and colours. The inclusion of murals and vintage fusion are being introduced to bring out spa-like sanctuaries.
